EASTER SUNDAY

MARCH 27, 2016

Sunrise Service

Call to Worship: Mark 16: 1-7

When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go to anoint Jesus' body. Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they were on their way to the tomb, and they asked each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?"

But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large had been rolled away. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

"Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus of Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"

INVOCATION

READING: Romans 8:31b-39

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all.

How will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

It is God who justifies,

who is he that condemns?

Christ Jesus, who died---more than that, who was raised to life is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shall trouble or hardship?

Persecution or famine,

Nakedness or danger or sword.

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death nor life

Neither angels nor demons,

Neither the present

Nor the future

Nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PRAISE RESPONSE

SONG

Trading my Sorrows

READING: 2 Corinthians 4: 8-12

We are hard pressed on every side,

But not crushed;

Perplexed

But not in despair

Persecuted,

But not abandoned;

Struck down

But not destroyed

We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body.

So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.
