PASTOR'S CORNER

REV. TERESA KEEZEL

FROM THE OTHER SIDE

One of the interesting tidbits I learned is this: Tradition thinks it knows the location where Jesus was crucified because there was such an uproar in Jerusalem that Jesus had been crucified that to quell the popular unrest the Roman government agreed not to crucify anyone on that location anymore. This decision was documented. The site now identified as Golgotha is the site identified and abandoned by the Romans. Personally, I find great comfort in the knowledge that the Jews did really care about Jesus. They had just got caught in the moment and when they went back and collected themselves, they felt bad. Bad enough that their grief changed the Roman government.

LENT IS HERE

We enter the season of the Cross. The Cross....We remember that Jesus was willing to suffer for us. That God so loved us that he bore the punishment for us. Can you feel the love? Can you feel his kindness? He is not trying to punish us. He is not trying to make us feel unclean or beaten. He is not trying to shame us. He is trying to lift us up. He is trying to give us space to turn our lives around and to grow closer to him.

All the same, can you feel your unworthiness? We are not worthy to gather the crumbs from under Christ's table. But his property is always to have mercy. So in his mercy, we give thanks for his willingness to see our sin and to forgive us. We are not bold. We are not self-proud. We are humble and thankful.

"As I have loved you, love one another."

Jesus said so.

MARCH MUSIC NOTES

PAT MADISON, MUSIC DIRECTOR

The annual talent show will be Friday, March 7th, beginning with dinner at 6:30 p.m. The theme this year is "On the radio" and we have some great numbers to broadcast on Friday. Snow and ice have been a rehearsal problem but we have persevered and we hope you will come and enjoy our show. The dinner menu is ziti pasta with either marinara sauce or meat sauce, salad, bread, and assorted desserts. We will also have tea, coffee, lemonade, and water to drink. Donations will be taken and proceeds will go to the youth mission trip and music department. Please join us for fun, laughter, and fellowship!

We would like to borrow old radios for the stage set for the talent show on March 7th. If you have one you can loan, please put your name on it and leave it in Pat's office. Beth and I would appreciate your help.

In between snow storms, the Cherubs, Seraphims, and Angels have been studying the life of Joseph. We will begin this week studying the stories of Moses. Come join the learning and fun!

I am organizing a group from Trinity to go to Brandermill Church at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, April 13th, to see the Raleigh Ringers perform. They are an amazing handbell group that has performed in Europe as well as in many states in the US. If I have 15 or more going, tickets are $15.00 each. Please e-mail me at piano4mom@gmail.com if you would like to go so that I can place the ticket order. Their concerts are always beautiful as well as entertaining. David Harris, the director, always add a bit of humor to his program. I know you would enjoy them.

Our children's choirs are learning songs that we can take to our next big event for spring- a trip to Lucy Corr. We had a great time when we went before so we will be travelling to Lucy Corr on Sunday, April 2nd at 2:00 p.m. We would love for all children to join us as we bring joy to some very special people. Rehearsals are Wednesday nights and Sunday afternoons. New children are always welcome.

Thanks to those women who have volunteered to be a part of the "Twelve Other Disciples". We will have an organizational meeting at 3:00 on March 9th to present parts and look at costumes. Thanks again for being a part of this service.

Blessings, Pat

DUST AND ASHES

Brian Wren

Worship & Song # 3098

Dust and ashes touch our face,
mark our failure and our falling.

Holy Spirit, come,
walk with us tomorrow,
take us as disciples,
washed and wakened by your calling.

Take us by the hand and lead us,
lead us through the desert sands,
bring us living water,
Holy Spirit, come.

Dust and ashes soil our hands
greed of market, pride of nation.

Holy Spirit, come,
walk with us tomorrow,
as we pray and struggle
through the meshes of oppression.
Take us by the hand and lead us,
lead us through the desert sands,
bring us living water,
Holy Spirit, come.

Dust and ashes choke our tongue
in the wasteland of depression.

Holy Spirit, come,
walk with us tomorrow,
through all gloom and grieving
to the paths of resurrection.
Take us by the hand and lead us,
lead us through the desert sands,
bring us living water,
Holy Spirit, come.

TO THE TRINITY FAMILY: A STEWARDSHIP NOTE

MAURICE LINKOUS

The year 2013 is history and we are well into the New Year. There are two things on my mind and first of which I think it only fitting that I thank you for allowing me to have been the Stewardship Chairman for the past three years. Hopefully I didn't unnerve too many of you. As diverse as the Trinity Family is it's a great feeling to talk about the accomplishments of the church and its missions and believe that you are a servant of God and a part of the family.

Secondly, it was very pleasing to see your purchase interest in the Historical Society's ornament production of the original Trinity Sanctuary. Many of you did not have the opportunity to attend services in the original Sanctuary but your response to owning and feeling a part of the Trinity history was overwhelming. In the course of bringing the ornaments to you for purchase, we requested you consider a $5 donation toward retiring the Trinity Church mortgage. I'm pleased to report that we realized a gain of $560 on the sale of the ornaments and that amount has been applied as a principal curtailment to the mortgage. It further benefits the church with a potential interest savings of $235 over the remaining life of the loan. We labored over how many ornaments should initially be ordered and started out thinking small only to increase the order three times. What a heartwarming surprise! Thank you for the support that you extended me over the past three years.

HELP NEEDED TO BRING NEW MISSION OPPORTUNITY

DEBORAH NAPOLITANO

The Missions Committee is researching the probability of bringing pre-packaged, pre-ordered boxes of food to our church once a month for distribution to individuals and families. The food in these boxes is of high quality and is affordable.

Help would be needed to unload boxes off the tractor trailer or go to the partner site for boxes; organize them in the church; check in clients ;hand them a brochure about our church; verify the correct box(es) go to the correct client; and help the client bring the boxes to their vehicle.

This has the potential to be a fantastic ministry for our church! In addition to helping to feed the hungry we have the opportunity to join the youth, parents, and grandparents; singles and married; early and late services and different Sunday School classes together in fellowship and ministry. It will bring families that normally would not walk through our doors and possibly bring them to Christ through our church. It would be a good idea to look at our brochures and insure they are current.

I urge you to go to ONEHARVEST.com and look at the value of the food boxes we could offer to church members and to other members of the community. Prayerfully consider if you would like to help with this ministry. It does not need to be once a month, it could be every other month or even once a quarter. The future of this ministry for our church depends on your taking the time to e-mail Deborah Napolitano at seven_naps@verizon.net or call her with your willingness to help.

"If Christ was sitting at our table, would we be proud to serve Him our food?" It is our duty to help feed the hungry as Christ called us in Matthew 25:34-35, "... Come you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in,..."

NOTE OF THANKS

Thank you to all the church members for the caring phone calls, lovely cards and flowers, and the prayers that helped get John and I safely back to Kansas for the funeral of my brother, Keith Carlat. We felt it was all the prayers that gave us safe travels during the snow storms. Thank you all so much.

Sue Morris

NOTE OF THANKS

Thanks be to God!

I will be working part-time (24 hrs/week) at Martin's at Chippenham Crossing in the meat department. Martins' employees have been friendly and encouraging and I look forward to working with them. The work will be challenging, but learning new stuff keeps me young. I think I'm going to enjoy being semi-retired.

Darleen and I both want to thank all of you for your prayers, good thoughts, leads, gifts, cards, flowers, monetary support (known and anonymous), and caring. We are truly blessed.

God Bless All!

Les Morgan
