Rejoice This Day

Call to Worship

Karen Petersen

When we witness our work bear good fruit and rejoice in all God has done among us...

we gather for worship.

When misunderstanding and misinformation threaten to divide instead of unite us...

we gather for worship.

When we dance together in the joy of knowing we belong to God and one another...

we gather for worship.

When we stumble and bumble our way forward as God's grace guides us into greater love and deeper communion...

we gather for worship. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Mark 6:30-34 CEB

Many people saw them leaving and recognized them, so they ran ahead from all the cities and arrived before them. ³⁴When Jesus arrived and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Then he began to teach them many things.

Holy Communion

John Wesley called Holy Communion "the grand channel" of God's grace to us; grace being nothing less than empowerment and pardon made possible by God's very presence with us. He wrote that, "it is the duty of every Christian to receive the Lord's Supper as often as he can..." and himself practiced this by receiving the sacrament several times each week.

Invitation to the Table

All Are Welcome

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Lord's Prayer

Traditional

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
